

OCT 13
2011
02:53 PM ET

Jamie Kennedy to host 'Guinness World Records Gone Wild' -- EXCLUSIVE

by James Hibberd

Categories: Reality TV

Comments 2 | Add comment

0

f Like

0

f Share

7

Tweet

0

+1

Ghost Whisperer and Cleveland Show actor Jamie Kennedy is lining up a new gig as the host of a TruTV reality show in the works with the catchy title of Guinness World Records Gone Wild.

The pitch: Ordinary people try land a place in the famed record book. The records the show will attempt to break include the most panes of glass run through in one minute, fastest time to jump over three oncoming cars, highest dive into 12 inches of water, most kicks to the head in one minute, most live cockroaches held in the mouth and the most people crammed into a tiny car.

TruTV just made a pilot order for the program from High Noon Entertainment.

Image Credit: AP Images